

Ingi Bjarni Quintet

A Nordic five-piece of friends and collaborators — the albums Farfuglar and Tenging.

BIOGRAPHY

Formed in 2019, the Ingi Bjarni Quintet gathers Nordic friends around the pianist's compositions. Their debut Tenging (2019) earned five nominations at the Icelandic Music Awards, and Farfuglar (2023) was nominated as Jazz Album of the Year. The quintet balances polished arrangements with a high level of improvisation and a strong sense of space.

LINEUP

Ingi Bjarni — piano
Jakob Eri Myhre — trumpet (Norway)
Merje Kägu — guitar (Estonia / Sweden)
Double bass — to be announced
Tore Ljøkelsøy — drums (Norway)

RELEASES

Farfuglar	2023
Tenging	2019

MORE LINKS

Tenging* — five IMA nominations (2020)
Farfuglar — nominated Jazz Album of the Year (2024).

PRESS

"...a captivating poetic ambience..."
JAZZ JOURNAL (UK)

"A wonderful album that captures the North..."
CONCERTO MAGAZIN (AT)

"...an improvising sound magician."
MUSICZINE (BE)

SELECTED TOURING

Transilvania Jazz Festival 2025 · Japan tour 2024 · Germany tours 2024 & 2021 · Jazz Maastricht 2023 · Iceland tour 2019

BOOKING

ingibjarni@ingibjarni.com

TERRITORIES

Festivals · strongest in Norway, the Baltics, Germany, the Netherlands & Romania

TECHNICAL

Full rider, stage plot & input list on request