

Ingi Bjarni Quartet

Contemplative, ECM-adjacent jazz — the album Hope (2025), featuring Anders Jormin.

BIOGRAPHY

Hope (Losen Records, 2025) is Ingi Bjarni's quartet, with Hilmar Jensson on guitar, Anders Jormin on double bass and Magnús Trygvason Eliassen on drums. Written largely in 2021, the year the pianist's mother passed away, the music moves through grief toward healing — spacious, melodic and emotionally honest, in a lineage that values space and tone.

LINEUP

Ingi Bjarni — piano
Hilmar Jensson — guitar (AlasNoAxis)
Anders Jormin — double bass (Bobo Stenson Trio, ECM)
Magnús Trygvason Eliassen — drums (ADHD)

RELEASES

Hope	2025
Hope — sheet music	2025

MORE LINKS

Hans Vera

Two nominations — Icelandic Music Awards 2026
for the album Hope (Losen Records, 2025).

PRESS

"...a quiet triumph — pain transformed into something luminous."
ALL ABOUT JAZZ (USA)

"...very much in Eicher's house style... outstanding."
JAZZ JOURNAL (UK)

"...the four players collectively breathe."
TEXTURA (CA)

REVIEWED IN

All About Jazz (US) · Jazz Journal (UK) · Textura (CA) · Jazz Thing (DE) · Lira (SE) · Tor Hammerø (NO) · Dragon Jazz (BE) · Jazzwise (UK)

BOOKING

ingibjarni@ingibjarni.com

TERRITORIES

Festivals · Europe strongest · 2027 routing. Anders Jormin is a festival draw.

TECHNICAL

Full rider & stage plot available on request